UNIVERSITY of WISCONSIN Superior

Finance

Admissions Office 715-394-8230 admissions@uwsuper.edu

UW-Superior's Business Administration major offers a concentration in Finance. The program offers in-depth preparation in the key areas of Finance - money and capital markets, investments, and financial management -- while also providing a broad background in business through courses in accounting, marketing, management and economics. This broad background prepares students to seek jobs in finance as well as in other areas of business.

Find out more about UW-Superior's Finance program online at www.uwsuper.edu/acaddept/dbe.

Degrees and Majors/Minors:

Major: Business Administration major with a concentration in finance

Let's talk Finance

- Faculty members have real-world experience in all areas of finance: accounting, finance, banking, investments and personal financial planning.
- Students benefit from small classes and individual attention from professors.
- The Finance program is a solid mix of accounting, marketing, management and economics as well as finance. Finance students also take courses in areas such as managerial finance, taxation, insurance and investments.
- Erlanson Hall is home to the business department with modern multi-media classrooms and computer labs.

WE INVITE YOU TO VISIT

A campus visit offers an opportunity to tour our campus and meet with an Admissions counselor. We can arrange for you to meet a professor and visit a class in any area you choose.

TO ARRANGE A VISIT:

Online: www.uwsuper.edu/admissions
Email: admissions@uwsuper.edu
Phone: 715-394-8230

- The Superior-Duluth metro area offers many internships at banks, credit unions, financial services companies, and government agencies. Faculty members work with students to find internship opportunities.

What can you do with a degree in Finance from UW-Superior?

Students completing this program are prepared for careers in corporate finance, banking and credit union management, brokerage, insurance sales and underwriting, personal financial planning, and tax consulting.